Celebrate Today...Own Tomorrow!

CELEBRATE TODAY,
OWN TOMORROW!

Students in various college courses at our Technical Colleges

At Broward Technical Colleges – Atlantic, McFatter and Sheridan - we nurture each student's unique interests, celebrate their skills and talents, and equip them to OWN their tomorrow. Broward Technical Colleges have provided quality Career and Technical education to students for over 50 years.

For the 6th year in a row, Broward Technical Colleges lead the State with the most earned Industry Certificates for the 2020-2021 school year! Students at Atlantic, McFatter and Sheridan Technical Colleges have performed better than their counterparts and earned an impressive 698 credentials.

I am very proud of our Broward Technical College students. Way to Go!!

As part of February's CTE Month Resolution efforts, I filmed a special video to recognize the occasion! Click the image or visit https://www.eduvision.tv/?eAggRgm

Celebrating Irish American Heritage Month

The American and Irish peoples enjoy a friendship deepened by both shared heritage and shared ideals.

Proclamation recognizing St. Patrick's Day and procession celebrating the day

PROCLAMATION
In Recognition of Irish-American Heritage and Saint Patrick's Day 2022

WHEREAS, over hundreds of years, Irish men, women and children left the homes of their ancestors, leaving towns like Dublin, Belfast, Donegal, Kilkenny, Wicklow, Cork, Limerick and Galway for America. Many left valuables, land, and stability behind, bringing instead to our shores the true treasures of their homeland – song and literature, humor and tradition, faith, and family. When the Irish landed on our shores, they shared their gifts generously, adding immeasurable value to town and cities throughout our Nation; and

WHEREAS, centuries after America welcomed the first sons and daughters of the Emerald Isle to our shores, Irish heritage continues to enrich our Nation. This month, we reflect on proud traditions handed down through the generations, and we celebrate the many threads of green woven into the red, white, and blue; and

WHEREAS, Irish Americans have defended our country through times of war, strengthened communities from coast to coast, and poured sweat and blood into building our infrastructure and raking our skyscrapers. Some endured hunger, hardship, and prejudice; many rose to be leaders of government, industry, or culture. Their journey is a testament to the resilience of the Irish character, a people who never stopped dreaming of a brighter future and never stopped striving to make that dream a reality; and

WHEREAS, today, Americans of all backgrounds can find common ground in the Irish values of faith and perseverance, and we can all draw strength from the unshakable belief that through hard work and sacrifice, we can forge better lives for ourselves and our families; and

WHEREAS, the American and Irish peoples enjoy a friendship deepened by both shared heritage and shared ideals. As we honor that enduring connection during Irish-American Heritage Month, let us look forward to many more generations of partnership. May the bond between our peoples only grow in the centuries to come; and

WHEREAS, Saint Patrick's Day is a holiday that honors the patron saint of Ireland who introduced Christianity to the island in the early fifth century, and is a holiday that has evolved into a celebration of all things Irish; and

WHEREAS, on this Saint Patrick's Day let us remember and cherish the famous Irish Americans who have made inestimable contributions to our country and all our peoples, including, to name just a few, astronaut Eileen Collins, sports legends Muhammad Ali, Tom Brady, Jack Dempsey, Whitey Ford, Ben Hogan, John McEnroe, Danica Patrick and John L. Sullivan, journalists Nellie Bly, Peggy Noonan and Maureen Dowd, art, film and literature legends Margaret Mitchell, Georgia O'Keeffe, Harrison Ford, Gene Kelly, Alfred Hitchcock, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Cormac McCarthy, Grace Kelly, Rosemary Clooney and John Huston; business magnates Henry Ford, Walt Disney and Roy Disney; presidents John Kennedy, Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan; George H.W. Bush, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush and Barack Obama; and of course our own beloved former School Board Member, Maureen Dinnen.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, of Irish descent, Ann Murray, School Board Member, District 1, on behalf of The School Board of Broward County, Florida, do hereby proclaim March as Irish-American Heritage Month and celebrate today as Saint Patrick's Day 2022.

Given at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, this 15th day of March 2022.
