

COLLEGE ADMISSIONS TESTING AT EVERGLADES HIGH SCHOOL

At Everglades High School, we want all students to be aware of the process for applying to college. The first step in the process is to take a college admissions exam. The two exam options are the SAT and the ACT. Most colleges will accept either exam. Some of the more competitive universities will also require an SAT Subject Area Exam. Your counselor can discuss this option with you. Here are some tips for registering for your tests:

- Sign up for these exams online at:
 - www.collegeboard.com (SAT exam)
 - www.actstudent.org (ACT exam)
- Log on to www.khanacademy.com for FREE test preparation! You can get free PERSONALIZED SAT preparation based on your 10th grade PSAT results!
- Sign up for your college admission tests in your junior year! Don't forget, ALL JUNIORS will take the SAT for FREE at Everglades High School DURING THE SCHOOL DAY on March 6, 2019.
- You should not limit yourself to just one try on a college admissions test. Many schools "super score" your test. This means they will take your highest score from each sub-section of one exam to create your best possible score for admissions. Schools will not combine the SAT and ACT in order to create a super score. They will use one test or the other.
- Remember: if you are on free or reduced lunch, you should see our BRACE Advisor, Mrs. Mendelson for an exam fee waiver.
