

Humanity Course Electives

Art

Do you have a Picasso in you? Come join us for two weeks as we create masterpieces and learn to explore art through many different canvases.

Music

Ever wanted to learn how to play an instrument? Or perhaps you would like to fine-tune what you already know. Spend two weeks playing and singing to a different beat.

Theater

Are you the center of attention? Do you like to perform on and off the stage? If you answer yes to any of these questions, then Theater is for you.

Scientific Visualization

If you can see it, than you can build it using the computer. Your goal will be to create items, either from real life or from your imagination. Watch your vision become reality.

Video Production

Become a director as you create and direct a video. You learn everything from creating a storyboard to editing the final scenes.

Language

Ni Hao -Have you ever wanted to learn a second or third language? Here is a chance to learn how to speak and write basic Mandarin.

World Wars

An in-depth look at World War I & World War II.

Culinary Arts

Have you ever wanted to be the next Master Chef? Join us on a culinary arts journey and learn that baking can be a science.

Chess

Learn strategy and critical thinking skills as you master your skills in Chess.

Interpreting Young Adult Literature

Take a journey into some of today's popular literature series and explore your creative side.

Debate

Want to work on your public speaking skills? Join debate and learn how to form an argument and win.