Coach Hively completed his 15th season with the Lady Titans girls' basketball program in 2018-19. He is one of the top 5 longest tenured Head Coaches at the same school for girls' basketball in Broward County. A well-known and respected coach in the girls' basketball community throughout the State of Florida and nationally on the grassroots level with 20 years of coaching experience. Hively has worked relentlessly during his time to put Nova High School on the map and to build a program with a winning tradition and family culture.

In 2018-19, Hively helped guide the Lady Titans to a 24-5 record and its 13th FHSAA postseason appearance, including a County record 15th straight appearance to the BCAA Big 8 Championships. Seniors Gabrielle "Gigi" Gonzalez signed with Stony Brook University and Kayla Massop signed with Florida A&M University. The Lady Titans reached the Elite 8.

In 2017-18, Hively helped lead the Lady Titans to a 30-2 record which was a program best and most wins in school basketball history. This was a banner year for the Lady Titans as they won the Holiday of Palm Beaches Classic Tournament, BCAA Big 8 County Championships, District and Regional Champions and went on to finish runner up to nationally ranked Winter Haven in the Class 8A State Finals. The season was highlighted by wins over Miami Country Day, Dillard, American Heritage, and St Thomas as well two teams from out of state. Seniors Erin Gutierrez (Broward County Player of the Year) signed with Tulane University and Samaria August signed with St. Thomas University.

Your Lady Titans basketball have traveled to Chicago, IL, Atlanta GA, Savannah GA, Charleston, SC, Orlando, FL, Ft. Myers, FL, etc. to compete in nationally competitive showcases and events.

Three former players have also come back to coach with the Lady Titans in Tonya Aaron (2014-2016), Clarissa “CJ” Coddington (2016-2019), and Trellanie English -Lurry (2019-present).
