Suggested Pacing Guide for Families New Renaissance Middle School Virtual Learning Plan

Dear Families,

The New Renaissance Middle School faculty and staff sends you warm regards during this difficult time. As a school family, we will work together so that everyone is successful. Therefore, we have created a "Suggested" pacing guide for your child to follow. This is not a mandatory pacing guide. If you have something in place in your home that already works, don't change it.

Students must sign in to canvas each day through their clever portal at sso.browardschools.com by 11:59 p.m. Doing so will document their engagement for learning for the day.

Please call 754-321-0569 for technical assistance Monday – Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Our school main number 754-323-3500 is available for voicemail messaging. The mailbox is checked daily and staff will respond to you within 48 hours Monday – Friday. The New Renaissance Middle School Virtual Office Hours Schedule is posted on our school website.

Wishing You Well,

Suggested Pacing Guide

Directions: Please work on each subject during the designated time. If you are completed with those assignments, work ahead in another course. Keep track of assignments and due dates. An assignment due date schedule is posted on our website. Contact your teacher directly using the information provided in their Canvas Course with any questions you may have. The schedule provided below corresponds with each department's office hours.
