

Brian Luebkert

Head Baseball Coach

brian.luebkert@browardschools.com

Brian Luebkert has been the assistant Coach at Nova High for the past 23 years. While at Nova, Luebkert has coach Two State Championship Teams (2004 & 2005) and One National Championship Team (2005) and several players in both the major and minor leagues. Michael Morse, drafted by the Chicago White Sox in 2000, played for the Mariners, National, Pirates, Orioles, Marlins and Giants. He was on the 2014 World Series San Francisco Giant's Championship Team. Anthony Swarzak drafted by the Twins in 2004 Anthony played for the Twins, Indians, Yankees, Mets, Brewers, Mariners and the Braves. Tim Remes was drafted by the Detroit Tigers in 2012, he is still with the organization as a bull pen catcher. Tyler Kinley was drafted by The Marlins, he played for the Twins and is presently with the Rockies.

Luebkert played Division 1 baseball at Western Kentucky University from 1993-1996 and before that at Valencia Community College from 1991-1993. Luebkert grew up in Coral Springs and attended Coral Springs High from 1988-1991, during his high school career he was on many national teams and won several awards and recognitions for defense and batting. Most recently, he was inducted into the Coral Springs High Inaugural 2019 Baseball Hall of Fame for his playing time there and before that the Nova High Baseball Hall of Fame for coaching. He looks forward to keeping all the Nova Baseball traditions alive and working with the school and community to make well rounded players both on and off the field.