Welcome to Cooper City High School where Sportsmanship is an Expectation! So please let the players play, let the coaches coach, let the officials officiate, and let the spectators be positive.

Cooper City has a population of 2385 students with over 350 of these students are athletes. 200 of these athletes are scholar athletes, which means they maintain a 3.5 unweighted GPA. We have 24 varsity and 9 junior varsity sports. We are proud members of the BCAA as well as the FHSAA. Our staff is as follows. Feel free to contact them at any time.

To participate in our Athletic program each student must maintain a cumulative unweighted GPA of a 2.0 or above. All the necessary forms are posted on our school website www.coopercityhigh.net and must be filled out prior to an athlete participating in any activity with a team. We hope that everyone will become part of a team to enhance their high school experience as a well-rounded high school student.
