

Pompano Beach High School
2020 Summer Reading
11th Grade

During this summer of physical distancing, I want you to rediscover the love of reading. Think back to when you were younger and read what you chose. Remember elementary school book fairs when you chose your books? Well that's what I want you do this summer. Talk to adults in your lives, and ask them for book recommendations. Look around the house for books on the shelves. It could be fiction or non-fiction. Think about topics you like, and do a Google search for books about that topic. It should be for your age level, so no Captain Underpants. And don't pick anything you've read before. Open your mind. Think between 200-300 pages. If it's a topic you like, that won't be a lot.

This is school, so of course, when you return, I will be assigning a paper for you to write and turn in to Canvas.

If you need some ideas:

Friday Night Lights by Buzz Bissinger

The Blind Side by Michael Lewis

Seabiscuit by Laura Hillenbrand

The Boys of Summer by Roger Kahn

Fever Pitch by Nick Hornby

Soccer in Sun and Shadow by Eduardo Galeano

Eight Men Out: The Black Sox and the 1919 World Series

Moneyball: The Art of Winning and Unfair Game Michael Lewis

The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks- by Rebecca Skloot

Lies My Teacher Told Me: Everything Your American History Textbook Got Wrong

Salt: A World History by Mark Kurlansky

Educated Tara Westover

Into the Wild by Jon Krakauer

Biographies

Memoirs

But this list is not long, because I want you to choose your own book.

If you need some electronic versions of books you can look at <https://www.broward.org/Library>

If you sign up for a library card, you can then check out e-books.

Here is one more site for free access to books.
