Rising Advanced Placement English Language and Composition students
Summer Reading Assignment 2022

Congratulations on your decision to take the AP Language and Composition class!

Part 1: Read

Krakauer, Jon. Into the Wild. New York: Anchor Books, 1997. Print.

First come first serve, Mrs. Cook has access to about 30 books you can borrow. You can also go to the library or here is a PDF

As you read, keep a dialectical journal! These journals will consist of quotations to which you respond critically for each work. Journals are due the first day of class. Our first lessons will revolve around the book.

1. Please label and date journals appropriately.
2. Select one quotation or passage for approximately every 15 pages. At least 12 responses.
3. Respond to the quotations, focus on the ways in which the author uses language to create an effect. Focus can be tone and theme.
4. What is it about the language that stands out and makes the passage distinctive?
5. How does the passage reflect the author's style and reveal larger themes of the work?
6. I expect responses to be developed thoughtfully and intellectually. Responses should be approximately 60 words in length.
7. The dialectical journals should be constructed in the following manner:

Quote Response

“Write the quote from the book Your response and analysis of the on the left side of the paper with quote should be written on the opposite the correct MLA citation” (176). side of the page.
