

September 15, 2016- October 15, 2016

Hispanic Heritage Month: LGBTQ Connections

GLSEN®

Latino/Hispanic Heroes of the LGBTQ Community

LGBTQ Hispanic Heritage Connections

From September 15, 2016 to October 15, 2016 Broward County Public Schools Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month!

Throughout this month, you can infuse Latino/Hispanic Heroes of the LGBTQ Community within your curriculum!

Classroom Integration Possibilities

Elementary

Brainstorm Activity

The students will learn about artist Frida Kahlo. They will brainstorm what is important to them, and include these things in their self-portrait.

<http://www.scholastic.com/teachers/lesson-plan/frida-kahlo-and-expression-through-self-portraits-lesson-plan>

Middle

Timeline Activity

Purpose: to have a better understanding of the historical context of LGBTQ/Hispanic people in the United States!

https://www.glsen.org/sites/default/files/LatinoMomentsHistory_0.pdf

High

Hispanic Heroes

Purpose: To learn from diverse Hispanic/Latino people who have made a significant impact.

https://www.glsen.org/sites/default/files/LatinoHeroesLGBT_0.pdf

Arts Integration

Frida Kahlo's Mexican heritage and culture figured prominently into her artwork and self-identity. There are a variety of possibilities for infusing Frida Kahlo's work into fine arts classes across all grade levels.

Frida's paintings combine the styles of realism, surrealism, and symbolism.

Resources on how to integrate Frida Kahlo into fine arts classes across all grade levels can be found at:

<http://kidworldcitizen.org/2014/06/25/kids-learn-frida-kahlo-mexican-artist-extraordinaire/>

