

Instructor's Name: Ms. Islande St. Louis
Course Title: Reading
Course Location: Mod 10
Contact Information: Phone: 754-322-1700
Email: i.stlouis@browardschools.com

Availability: After school until 2:45p.m. or via email

Course Materials: Instruction will be provided using Edge B, Florida Collections Gr. 9 along with other supplementary materials such as Vocabulary Workshop Level D, selected novels, and supplementary readings.

Electronic Resources: Florida Collections, Vocabulary.com, KhanAcademy.org and NewsELA

Objectives: This course is designed to provide students with the skills and knowledge necessary to compete in the 21st century. Students need to be able to collaborate with others to complete a task, to make meaning of any text they encounter, and to communicate effectively in speech and writing. It also provides students ample opportunity to refine and master strategies that will enhance their ability to understand and analyze any challenging text, to write with clarity and voice, to speak and listen in order to communicate and work effectively with others, and to view media with a critical intelligence.

Class Work and Homework Policy:

- Students must complete and turn in assignments in a timely manner. Students should note assignments and due dates on their syllabus and in their agendas.
- In order to receive full credit for educational readiness, students must actively participate in class (ask questions if one does not understand, volunteer to answer questions, and become involved in class discussions) along with having all required materials daily.
- If a student is assigned to a group, the student must contribute to the group by completing his/her portion of the work and collaborating with the other group members to complete the assigned task.
- Handwritten assignments must be legible and submitted with the proper heading in the upper right hand corner of the full sheet of ruled paper.
- Typed assignments must be double-spaced, in Times New Roman, and 12 point font, justified with 1- inch margins.

Assessments:

Announced and unannounced assessments will be given each at the end of each concept/theme, collection, and marking quarter.

Late Work:

Late assignment(s) will earn reduced or no credit at the discretion of the instructor. No late work will be accepted more than 3 days late without prior instructor approval.

Weighting of Assignments:

The final course grade will be based on various traditional and alternative assignments.

Tests	100 points
Quizzes	50 points
Class work	25 points
Homework	20 points

Grading Scale:

Broward County Grading Scale
90 -100 = A
80 – 89 = B
70 – 79 = C
60 – 69 = D
< 60 = F

Academic Integrity: Cheating is defined as sharing of class work, answers, or any assignment for which a grade will be earned that is not otherwise defined as a group project. This includes plagiarism. Students will receive a zero for cheating, and a detention. Teachers could also give alternative assignment for partial credit if applicable.

Attendance: Regular class attendance is mandatory. If a project or assignment is given before a student is absent, the project or assignment is due on the day the student returns to class.

Class Disruption: Students MUST follow the rules set forth in the Student Code of Conduct, enter class prepared to learn, and respect everyone in the class.

- 1st offense- Warning w/ documentation
- 2nd offense – Student conference and detention
- 3rd offense – Parent conference (via phone, email or in-person)
- 4th offense – Referral

NOTE: Prior to the start of class, students must turn their cell phones off to avoid unnecessary classroom disruptions.
