- Statement: "I swear that the foregoing is true to the best of my knowledge. I am aware that knowingly providing false information could result in possible action taken against me. My signature below acknowledges my understanding of the statement." Signature space and date field.

C. If it is determined that the complaint relates to discrimination or that there is a prima facie (*In law, adequate to establish a fact or raise a presumption of fact unless refuted; at first sight.) implication of discrimination, the Complainant is asked if he/she wishes to file a formal complaint.

(1) If the Complainant wishes to pursue the matter, the inquiry becomes a formal charge. Attempts will be made whenever possible to resolve the complaint informally.

(2) If the Complainant does not wish at the time of the inquiry to file a formal complaint, a note is made on the Inquiry form and/or the inquiry is held, pending for future action.

(3) If no further contact is made by Complainant and if no action is required by law, the inquiry will be administratively closed.

(4) If further contact is not made by complainant and action is required by law, (for example, sexual harassment) the complainant will be so advised.

D. Complainant is advised of his/her right to file a complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Office for Civil Rights, or any other applicable agency.

II. Formal Charge

A. The Complainant completes a Discrimination/Intake Form.

B. An interview is held with the Complainant, if necessary, to obtain additional information and to clarify the complaint.

C. A complaint number is assigned to the charge.

D. The alleged parties to the discrimination (Respondents) are notified that a charge has been filed. Written notice containing the specifics of the charge is sent to the Respondent. The Respondent is required to respond in detail to each allegation raised by the Complainant. The Respondent is also asked to submit documents that support his/her position.

E. On occasion, a charge will require a visit to the school or site of the alleged discrimination in order to interview witnesses or to review other documentation. It may also be necessary to contact the Personnel Records Department to review personnel documents.

F. The Administrator reviews the Respondent's response, results of the site visit, personnel records, and any other relevant documents. A determination or finding (probable cause or no probable cause) will be based on the documentation presented.
