Theater etiquette

It is often helpful to remind students of appropriate audience etiquette by explaining and discussing WHY these rules of behavior are important:

- Restroom visits are best made prior to the performance.
- Listen carefully to the ushers and your teachers. This gets everyone to your seats quickly and ensures a pleasant experience.
- Turn watches and cell phones to silent.
- Walk single file, hold hand rails as you use the steps for your safety.
- Listen carefully to each performer. They are working hard to entertain and inform with lots of clues about the story.
- Refrain from TALKING. This allows everyone to enjoy the show without distraction. Sometimes we think that if we whisper it is okay. But, if everyone in the audience whispers, it becomes disruptive.
- Laugh if something is funny, but not too loudly, you don't want to miss any dialogue.
- Photography and recording are not permitted.
- Pay attention to the lighting, scenery, costumes and music-all of these elements help provide more details to tell the story in an interesting way.
- Applaud (clap) at the end. This shows the performers that you respect and appreciate their work.

THE WEIGHT OF Words

SYNOPSIS

The Weight of Words is an original musical written and composed by the students and staff of the 2011 Nova High Lovewall Project designed to stop bullying.

The Weight of Words puts a magnifying glass on the topic of bullying and its effects within a home, a school, a community, the United States, and in the world. We hear about the issues from every angle – the ones being bullied, the bullies themselves, bystanders, parents, teachers, principals, community leaders and lawmakers.

The question remains – “What will you do with the weight of your words?”

Consider the strategies the performers find to deal with bullying. You may find some that feel right for you and be inspired to address the weight of words.
