

On Average
94%
of students are in school everyday

Student Attendance At A Glance

- The average daily attendance rate remained stable across the past three years at 94%.
- Attendance was lower for high schools (91%) compared to elementary schools (96%) and Middle Schools (95%). Attendance at centers was the lowest (71%).
- Students enrolled at centers missed an average of 43 days, while the average high school student missed 16 days during the 2013-14 school year.
- Black, Hispanic, and White students all had a similar average daily attendance rate. However, Black students registered higher unexcused to excused absences than Hispanic or White students.

Rate of excused and unexcused absence, by three major racial groups, for the 2013-14 school year.

Additional Resources

- Detailed school-by-school results: <http://www.broward.k12.fl.us/sar/Releases.htm>
- All administrators are trained on the Breaking Barriers Professional Development series, which provides strategies for reducing absences and creating a culture of learning in schools. <http://www.browardprevention.org/resources/professional-development>
- Information on intervention programs: <http://www.browardprevention.org>