From Ms. Mccoy

The science Department would like to wish everyone a Happy World Science Day.

Science is a way of life. Science is a perspective. Science is the process that takes us from confusion to understanding in a manner that's precise, predictive and reliable - a transformation, for those lucky enough to experience it, that is empowering and emotional.

By Brian Grene

Stay curious, ready to learn and excited to experience the next best thing. Have a great day of Science STMS.

From Coach Galvez

Yesterday in front of an electric crowd, your boys defeated Walter C. Young by a score of 51 to 37. The mustang defense was "Criminal" having a total of 14 steals in the game. 7 of them by Noah B. The offense was led by 8th graders Shanto C. who had 11 points and Jordan Q who had 10 points and 15 rebounds. 7th graders Alex R. and Noah B. combined for 11 points, while 6th grader Greg O. had 5 points and 5 assists . The coaches and players would like to thank all administration, staff and students who made it out to the game, Our last home game will be next Wednesday, let's make it a packed house.

From Mr. Miller
