Broward County Public Schools has designated today, Feb. 14 as a day of service and love in commemoration of the lives lost at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School. In an effort to honor the memories of those tragically lost on Feb. 14, 2018. A list of activities and causes these individuals enjoyed is listed. In honor of this let's take a look at a video focusing on the love of family.

From Mrs. Fernandez and the Peer Counselors: Dear teachers, friends, and staff at Silver Trail Middle: As you know, February 14th has been designated as a Day of Service and Love in commemoration of the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School tragedy two years ago. It is a day for us to give back to the community in honor of the 17 lives lost and those who were injured.

The Peer Counselors created a piece of Art to honor them. It is called "We don't need shields. All we need is love." Each of these pieces of art represent who they were, their hobbies, preferences, sports, personality, and more. We invite you to stop by the courtyard, close to the gym entrance and dedicate a moment of your time to honor each one of them.

From Mr Soto, Coding Club is cancelled for today. We repeat.

From Mrs. Metzner and Ms. Bonsanti, our next Best Buddies event will be today. Teachers, an email was sent with the names of the Best Buddies who will be a part of this event.

Our black history month focus for today will be on Mae C. Jemison presented by Sennae Dewar.

---

That's it for today: Have a Happy Day of Service and Love Silver Trail!
