Gooooood Morning SILVER TRAIL! This is Mathias coming to you from the WSTM Live studio! Today is Monday, February 3rd, 2020.

Good Morning! This is Gideon with your announcements for today. The affirmation for today is: I am too big a gift to this world to feel self-pity.

Students, please make sure your ID's are on and visible at this time.

From Mrs. McCoy, come one, come all! There is still time to qualify for the National Science Bee. All are welcome to participate. Come test your knowledge of Basic Science Concepts. This twenty-minute challenge will take place in Room 154 after school tomorrow, February 4th and Wednesday, February 5th. Pick your day and come to win! See you there!

Attention students interested in joining Art Club: Spots are still available in our Spring classes. If you are interested, please visit the STMS website under School News. Click on the Art Club link for details about classes and who you should email to register.

This week is National School Counseling week. Don't forget to thank your counselors for all they do for you!

February is Black History Month. During African American History Month, we celebrate these formative leaders and sites of the civil rights movement, as well as innumerable others who have contributed immeasurably to the tapestry of America, helping shape our nation and the world. African American History Month is a time to reflect on our nation's history and progress, and recommit to advancing equal opportunity for all. Now let's take a look at artwork done by Mandy Hong and a short clip about Carter G. Woodson.

Our guests for today are members of Builders Club (Sock Drive for the Homeless).

That's it for today: Have a Magnificent Monday Silver Trail!
