

About Our School

Boyd H. Anderson High School is named after the third County Judge of Broward County, Boyd H. Anderson, Sr., who served from 1933 to 1968. It is the first public school in Broward County to contain an accredited International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme as a magnet program. It gained this distinction in December 1985. In September 2005, we began offering the "Middle Years" program.

Boyd H. Anderson was given the degree of "Academic Excellence" by the State of Florida for the 2009-2010 school year for its International Baccalaureate Programme.
