

Piper H.S SAC Minutes
December 10, 2018

CALL TO ORDER:

Mr, Monereau, called the meeting to order at 6:07 pm. Pledge of Allegiance.

WELCOME: Family Central-Community Engagement Coordinator Mrs. Carolyn Hudson. Ms. Scott, our new A.P Interim. She will elevate Piper into our future as an “A” school.

APPROVAL OF MINUTES: For 9/11, 10/9 & 11/13. Mrs. Lewin and Mrs. Coles.

PRINCIPAL’S REPORT:

Mrs. Hautigan: We will have review sessions every day after school for all EOC/FSA testing subject areas starting on or about 2/1/19. All kids should attend. A lot is going on from concerts, athletics etc. Take advantage of all that is happening here at school.

OLD BUSINESS:

Our SMART Initiative- Single point of entry still not completed. No ETA at this time Exam waivers were given out last week. Parents should have signed them to exempt up to 3 classes. 1st/2nd qtr grades must be a B. These are due 12/12/18.

NEW BUSINESS:

Family Services to our Tri County children. Leadership Program for Parents-Partnership with the City of Sunrise. Training is open to everyone that cares about children in their homes and all other children.

Mrs. Scott: We are hosting an EOC Parent Night on 1/24/19. We want to engage with parents as to the details of taking the EOC. Explain test scores, results of not passing, registering for next year’s classes. Our 2/6/19 event will be geared more towards 9th graders. All subject areas, sports, activities, AP, Cambridge & Dual Enrollment will be covered. We will highlight all that is going on.

Graduation rates have been release. Piper stands at 95.7% graduation rate!

CLASS UPDATES:

Blaine Grant, Senior Class President: Prom, Grad Bash, Senior Brunch, all being planned at this time.

Kalesha Evans, President, SGA: Spirit Week currently going on here at Piper. Winter White, Polar Express, Hawaiian Tropic and Color Wars are a few of the daily themes taking place this week.

Carrington Boothe, Junior Class President: Please have your children get involved in our activities.
