"I love the school, I love the fact we have police officers to keep us safe and how we have to be escorted to the bathroom it makes me feel like a prince. It's like I have my personal bodyguards, I love the fact we have delicious lunches to eat at school and how we have a vending machine. The principal is also really cool because she's a girl and she is black. ♥ I also love the literature because I am super good at wiring and I think it's super helpful. I love PE because we get to run and play! "
