

MISSION

Coach Taggart's Touchdown Readers program is designed to encourage elementary-age students to continue reading over the summer. With a goal of four (4) grade-level appropriate books read over the summer, Coach Taggart's Touchdown Readers incentivizes reading and learning over the summer. Students who complete the program will have the ability to claim two (2) tickets to an FAU Football game during the upcoming season.

DESCRIPTION

Coach Taggart's Touchdown Readers is endorsed by FAU Head Football Coach Willie Taggart. The program is open to all students from kindergarten through eighth grade (K-8), based on their grade for 2020-21. Coach Taggart's Touchdown Readers program runs through August 1.*

Each student who completes the program will receive two (2) tickets to an FAU Football game.

Students who complete the program and attend a game will also receive a Coach Taggart's Touchdown Reader t-shirt. Those who completed the program and attend a game will be recognized at the game and will have an opportunity to take photos on the field at FAU Stadium following the game.

HOW TO COMPLETE & SUBMIT

Visit FAUSports.com/read. To complete this program, the parent or guardian of the student may visit the FAU Athletics website and download the book tracker form. Once the form is filled with four books, please visit our website to submit it. The online form must be completed by a parent/guardian. Once submitted, the FAU Ticket Office will call and email to follow up with two (2) FAU Football Tickets.

If there are any questions regarding this program, please contact Community Relations Coordinator, Haiden Nagel, at hnagel2013@fau.edu.

*FAU Athletics reserves the right to extend the end date of the program.

Tickets are for the first home game of the 2020 season. Promotion/game dates subject to change.

