

March 24, 2020

Good evening Cooper City,

This is Wendy Doll, Principal of Cooper City High School

I hope this e-mail finds you all healthy and hopeful. I just wanted to bring you all up to date on where we are headed as we return from our Spring Break days and we finalize 3rd quarter.

Monday, March 30th- Wednesday, April 1st- Ending 3rd quarter

Students please take a look at your Pinnacle and complete any missing assignments possible. Any questions, please contact your teachers through Canvas or the e-mail directory. We ask that you do the best you can and we will do the best we can given the extreme circumstances we are all working under.

Thursday, April 2nd

Teachers will be submitting 3rd quarter grades. We know that Quarter 3 came to an abrupt end and we will be looking to make sure that grading is equitable for all.

Friday- April 3rd

Teachers will be finalizing their Canvas course prep for 4th quarter. Establishing office hours and working on making sure that all of their students can access the e-learning opportunities provided by each of their teachers. It is important that everyone check- in on Canvas prior to Monday, April 6th if you have not done so.

Monday, April 6th -Start of 4th quarter

This platform of teaching and learning is new to all of us so patience and teamwork are paramount as we navigate strange waters.

Here you will find a two page information sheet and more essential information (such as BCPS, testing, AP and AICE/ Cambridge updates) is accessible on our homepage <https://www.browardschools.com/coopercityhigh> - e-Learning support for parents and students.

Communication is key and Connecting to one another is essential. We are here to help and assist so please don't hesitate to contact any of us. The staff e-directory is also available on our homepage. Go slow and breathe. First is connecting and the rest will come.

To the Class of 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023, the entire faculty and staff misses you greatly and wish you were here. Sending you our best!!! See you on-line. We will get through this together, if we work together.

Waiting and hoping!!!
