Review Title I informationMs. Edman

- The Annual Title I School Parent and Family Engagement Survey window is currently open. Mrs. explains that when the window ends, survey results will be sent to the Title I office and they will send back a report compiled with all the responses.
- Title I seminar
 - The school has allotted $140 for 3 parents to go to the Annual Title I seminar to learn more information about how to become more involved in your child's education. The seminar will be held on Saturday February 2, 2019. Mrs. Asked if any parents in attendance were interested in attending.
 - Mrs. Edman reminds parents that the next Title I parent night will be on January 31, 2019 and the focus will be on Literacy.

Principal Report

- SMART bond money update

- Blacktop awning - The awning for the blacktop is currently being installed. Due to this awning being installed 5th grades field day was changed to another day to allow the 5th grade access of the blacktop.
- Buzzer system – The school has a brand-new system for access into the building. Parents must buzz in and face the camera so that the office staff can see them and grant them access.
- New roof – The school’s roof will be updated over the summer.

Concerns / Questions

- Comment: Some parents are upset about the St. Augustin trip being canceled due to there not being enough students that signed up for the trip. Administration and the 4th grade teachers are working on an alternative field trip.

Adjourn

- Meeting adjourned at 7:58. The next SAC meeting is scheduled for January 24th.
