

Open House, Title I

Public Meeting

5:30-7:30 PM

Tentative dates for SAC/PTO Meetings for the 2019-2020 school year will be the second Tuesday of the month.

Meeting times may vary to meet the needs of parents. Parents voted to hold the SAC meetings at 8:15 a.m. for the 2019-2020 school year.

The Mission Statement of Lloyd Estates Elementary: Our mission is to develop well-rounded creative thinkers and problem solvers with the strength of character to serve as a productive member of society.

Lloyd Estates Elementary, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) (participating children), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards.

School-Parent Compact

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

We, as students, will share the responsibility to improve our academic achievement and achieve the State's high standards.

Specifically, we will:

- Come to school ready to learn and with the necessary school supplies.
- Display positive Character Traits
- Complete our homework every day and ask for help when needed.
- Read at least 30 minutes daily outside of school time.
- Give parents and or guardians all notices and information received from my school.
- Use the technology in my school appropriately.
- Wear the uniform of Lloyd Estates Elementary School.
- Utilize school initiatives and strategies

LLOYD ESTATES ELEMENTARY WILL:

- Provide a high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards as follows: Maximize the effectiveness of instruction by keeping teachers updated on the most current instructional strategies. Provide Parents with training to enable them to help their child. Use Early Release Days as "STEM Academy Days" to enrich the student's learning.
- Hold one parent-teacher conference each semester to discuss and identify student strengths and weaknesses: The Compact will be discussed to increase the collaboration between the school, parents and students.
- Provide parents frequent reports on their children's progress. Specifically, the school will: Inform parents of test results and academic/ behavioral progress of their child. Provide daily agendas, quarterly interim progress reports and report cards.
- Provide parents reasonable access to staff. Specifically, staff will be available for consultation with parents as follows: Conferences before and after school as well as telephone conferences. Translation is provided
- Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities, as follows: During our first SAC meeting we will inform parents and community members about the volunteer opportunities available. Assistance and translation will be provided with completing the volunteer application and gaining security clearance through the STAR system.

PARENT RESPONSIBILITIES

We, as parents, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

- Promote the importance of education and the behavior necessary for learning.
- Monitor attendance and insure that my child arrives at school by 7:50 A.M.
- Make sure that homework is completed
- Volunteer in my child's school
- Participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- Promote positive use of my child's extracurricular time.
- Stay informed about my child's education and communicate with the school by reading the newsletters and other notices from the school and signing and returning necessary documents.
- Attending as many parent meetings as possible. PTO, SAC (School Advisory Council)
- Attend one conference per semester and maintain contact with the teachers through the use of the provided Agendas.

Please cut and return the bottom portion acknowledging that you and your child have received the School-Parent Compact for 2019-2020
