Choosing child care is one of the most important decisions families make. All too often, families must rely on word-of-mouth. Knowing that not every program meets a child's needs, it is important to ask as many questions as you can before you place your child in a program. Do so in advance, enabling you to research programs that service children at the school.

Contact the front office for further details or check out our website for more information about Pinewood's aftercare.

Teacher Conferences

Parents may set up appointments to meet virtually with their child's teacher. You may call the office to set up an appointment or email the teacher.

Tips Just for Spelling Tests

In most schools, a weekly spelling test is a fact of life. Here are some ways to take the drudgery out of studying spelling words:

1. Focus on test improvements rather than test scores. Each time your child gets more words correct, that's a time to celebrate.
2. Use all senses. Don't just spell words out loud. Write words in the air or on a special chalk board, Make up silly songs or raps.
3. Study in small spurts. Spell a word at each red light...or before dessert...or in the bathtub...or while doing dishes together.
