Tips for Parents: Literacy at Home

You are your child's first and most important teacher, playing an integral role in your child's academic success. Reading with your child, even for just 20 minutes a day, is a proven way to promote language and literacy. We encourage you to implement a few simple strategies at home daily to make a positive impact on your child's success in school.

For Oral Language Practice

- *Practice conversational turn talking with your child
- *Use descriptive language when talking about this topic
- *Model how to listen to others respectfully and responsibly
- *Have your child recall or restate what he/she reads in their own words
- *Engage in conversation during dinner

Phonemic Awareness (the ability to focus on individual sounds in words)

- *Practice clapping out words with two or more syllables
- *Ask your child to find objects around the house that are compound words
- *Hunt for words. Choose a blend (bl) or beginning sound and look for words (blanket, blue etc.)
- *Model how to break apart unfamiliar words when reading aloud to your child

Phonics (understanding how sounds correlate with letters in the alphabetic system)

- *Have your child look for words in a magazine or newspaper (beginning sounds, or words with ing)
- *Sort words with the same letter clusters by sound (for example, ch-cheese, machine, school, choir)
- *If your child has difficulty spelling a word, have him/her break the word into syllables to write them (to/ge/ther)

Panther Academy Updates

Panther Academy is proud to serve over one hundred Sawgrass Students. On our recent Early Release Day students enjoyed the magic of Magician Ian Michael from Dangerfun Entertainment. They also got a popcorn treat to munch on. We will be creating Fall crafts & making treats to celebrate the Autumn Season.

Remember, we are looking for high school graduates to join our Team. This will allow us to increase the number of students that we serve in the Panther Academy After Care program. Interested candidates can reach out to Mrs. Weise at jweise@browardschools.com

Consejos para los padres: alfabetización en el hogar

Usted es el primer y más importante maestro de su hijo/a y desempeña un papel integral en su éxito académico. Leer con su hijo, incluso durante solo 20 minutos al día, es una forma comprobada de promover el lenguaje y la alfabetización. Los invitamos a implementar algunas estrategias simples en casa todos los días para tener un impacto positivo en el Desarrollo y aprendizaje de los niños en la escuela.

Para la práctica del lenguaje oral

- * Practique el turno de conversación hablando con su hijo/a.
- * Utilice un lenguaje descriptivo al hablar del tema.
- * Modele cómo escuchar a los demás de manera respetuosa y responsable.
- * Haga que su hijo recuerde o repita lo que lee con sus propias palabras
- * Participe en una conversación durante la cena.

Le gustaría crear Conciencia fonémica en su hijo/a?

Conciencia Fonémica es la capacidad de concentrarse en los sonidos individuales de las palabras.

- * Aplauda con tu hijo/a palabras con dos o más sílabas
- * Pídale a su hijo que busque objetos en la casa que sean palabras compuestas.
- * Busquen palabras con mezcla de sonidos, como, por ejemplo: (bl) o el sonido inicial. También palabras regulares que permitan hacer frases completas.
- * Modele cómo separar palabras desconocidas cuando le lea en voz alta a su hijo

Fonética (comprender cómo los sonidos se correlacionan con las letras en el sistema alfabético)

- * Haga que su hijo/a busque palabras en una revista o periódico (sonidos iniciales o palabras con ing)
- * Ordene las palabras con los mismos grupos de letras por sonido (por ejemplo, ch-cheese, machine, school, choir)
- * Si su hijo tiene dificultad para deletrear una palabra, pídale que divida la palabra en sílabas para escribirlas (a / ge / ther)

Actualizaciones de Panther Academy

Panther Academy se enorgullece de servir a más de cien estudiantes de Sawgrass.

En nuestro reciente Día de Salida Temprana, los estudiantes disfrutaron de la magia del mago Ian Michael de Dangerfun Entertainment. También obtuvieron un bocadillo de palomitas de maíz para masticar. Crearemos manualidades de otoño y haremos golosinas para celebrar la temporada de otoño.

Recuerde, estamos buscando graduados de la escuela secundaria para unirse a nuestro equipo. Esto nos permitirá aumentar la cantidad de estudiantes que servimos en el programa Panther Academy After Care. Los candidatos interesados pueden comunicarse con la Sra. Weise en jweise@browardschools.com
