

Please see the information below on Economic Self-Sufficiency Program

Florida KidCare includes free, subsidized, and full-pay options for health and dental insurance for Florida children ages 0-18. There are four KidCare programs: Medicaid, MediKids, Children's Medical Services, and Florida HealthyKids. For more information on these programs, please visit the Florida KidCare website at <https://www.floridakidcare.org/>.

The Refugee Services Program assists refugees with many employment, training, and health related services to attain economic self-sufficiency. For more information about this program, please visit the web page at <https://www.myflfamilies.com/service-programs/refugee-services/overview.shtml>.

The Office of Homelessness contracts with local entities that provide a comprehensive array of emergency, transitional, and permanent housing, and supportive services to address the varying needs of the persons who are homeless or at-risk of becoming homeless. For more information about this program, including locating a local provider, please visit the web page at <https://www.myflfamilies.com/serviceprograms/homelessness/>.

For information regarding elder services and activities, such as food and nutrition, health and wellness, housing, legal services, long-term or home care, or other support services, please call the Florida Department of Elder Affairs' Elder Helpline: 1-800-96-ELDER (1-800-963-5337).