

Lifeline Phone Program by Assurance Wireless

Lifeline is a government benefit program supported by the federal Universal Service Fund. Enrollment is available to individuals who qualify based on federal or state-specific eligibility criteria.

New Lifeline customers who qualify for Lifeline Assistance will receive:

- A free smartphone
- 3GB of free data each month
- Unlimited free texts each month
- 350 free voice minutes each month

Enrollment is available to individuals who qualify based on federal or state-specific eligibility criteria. You may qualify if you are on certain public assistance programs, like Medicaid or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). You can also qualify based on your household income. The Lifeline Assistance program is available for only one wireless or wireline account per household. Separate households that live at the same address are eligible, including residents of homeless shelters and nursing homes. Residents with temporary addresses are also eligible.

Individuals who've become recently unemployed may qualify for this program. Such individuals can now use their unemployment benefit letter as proof of income when applying. This option is available until 11/30/20. Services this program provides:
