- Title 1 schools, they mostly get their status by free and reduced lunch. The impact of not being a title one school is a financial impact.
- Policy 6000.1, student progression policy. All high school incoming 9th graders will be taking the financial half credit course. It has to be paired with another course since it's a half credit course. Students will take it at the 11th/12th grade level. Parents can request special accommodations for the end of year standardized test for their kids with disabilities.
- 6306 homework policy. Teachers should not assign homework after the bell has rung. Letter J states that if a homework is posted after class, the student needs 2 class meetings to turn in their work. If the teachers continue to go against the policy, students should tell their parents, the parent should contact the assistant principal, and then go up the chain of command.
- Distant learning initiative. Not all high schools offer the same classes, however the high schools should promote these classes.
- There are limitations on students who do dual enrollment. The district is trying to convey a committee to handle dual enrollment. There's a new amendment going to the board for summer dual enrollment at Broward College.
- SAC funds can only be spent on SIP.
- Raptor program. The district is reviewing the components that were purchased with raptor. Questions for our schools are: is the front office trained to use raptor? When issues with the raptor system occur, is the 1800 number called?
- 4 day school week. Pompano Beach high school has their budget posted on their website likewise the office of service quality.
- Positivity being done at our schools should be shared instead of all the negativity going around.
