

Active Parenting Leader Training Workshop

Who should attend: School and District Staff, Title I, Guidance Counselors, Family Counselors, Social Workers, Head Start & Early Head Start, Parent Educators, School Psychologists, Speech-Language Pathologists, ESE Specialists, Program Specialists, Teachers, Community Liaisons & Other Interested Educators and Administrators

Participants will learn how to use the nationally recognized Active Parenting curriculum (based on Adlerian Psychology) to teach a six session workshop series for parents of children ages 5-12 or teens. Active Parenting curriculum is also available to teach parents of young children in a four-session series. Learn to lead effective parenting groups and sharpen your skills. National Active Parenting Leader certification is recommended (no cost; no renewal requirement; apply within one year of attending this Active Parenting Leader Training). National certification is issued by the Active Parenting Publishing Company in Georgia.

Participants will learn how to:

- Teach Active Parenting workshops to parents in a variety of settings
- Stimulate positive changes in children, teens and parents
- Enhance parent-child communication skills, self-esteem and academic success
- Help parents teach their children problem solving and conflict resolution skills
- Implement effective non-violent discipline techniques, peer pressure resistance skills, substance abuse/pregnancy prevention and prevention/intervention behavioral strategies
- Provide evidence-based instruction to encourage parents in raising responsible children
- Make your classes enjoyable with practical parenting skills that can be used immediately
