SAF Representative report / Update – Chester Brooks

Old Business:

- The district is continuing to update the language on SB-2401 regarding the rules on tobacco use in schools (SB-2401).
 - o Western High School students gave a presentation on the effects of tobacco in schools
 - o Student-created pamphlets were handed out

New Business

- The BCPS app is misleading parents as it does not currently reflect real-time grades
 - o It was noted that if a grade change is needed, the teacher must fill out a grade-change form, which will be sent to the school IMT. The changed grade will be reflected on the next report card.
