PRESIDENTS FAIRWELL

President Gina Molina expressed how thankful she is for everything. Gina enjoyed working with everyone and is so proud of all the work that was accomplished last year especially during unprecedented times. She thanked Mrs. Morgan, Principal, for her dedication. She welcomed Nicole Raizen to the roll and appreciated her hard work as Vice President last year. She will be staying on the Executive Board in the position of Volunteer Coordinator and is happy to help whenever & wherever needed!

Nicole Raizen, Vice President thanked Gina Molina, President, for her hard work and expressed appreciation. She looks forward to working with her on the board!

NEW BOARD INTRODUCTIONS

PTA President Nicole Raizen

Nicole started her time here at CIE in 2014 when her child was enrolled. She has previously held the Vice President position in years 18/19 & 19/20. Nicole currently has a 2nd & 5th grader at CIE and is excited to help!

PTA Vice President Rosey Collado Perez

Rosie is excited to be Vice President. She has been at CIE since 2015 and currently has a 3rd grader at CIE. Rosey appreciates that she has met amazing people and made friendships. She has previously held various positions, the most recent being the Chairperson for 5th grade, Fluency Friday & Book Fair.

TREASURES REPORT

Nella Collado, returning Treasurer introduced herself and gave the Treasurers report.

- Partners income-unfortunately some partners goals were not met due to the changes around Covid-19.
- the annual budget was balanced at end of year even though spring was “canceled”.
- accommodated and distributed all budgets for this year and asked committee chairs to watch budgets, explaining that it's very important to stick to numbers.
- anticipated to break even this year 20/21
- added some supplies and line items for Mrs. Morgan such as Brainpop & additional Covid-19 supplies.
- a goal this year will be to touch base with income partners and make these goals through relationships and banners

PRINCIPALS REPORT BY MRS. MORGAN

- Mrs. Morgan started off by thanking Gina Molina, former PTA President and wishing her well. She then welcomed Nicole Raizen as the new PTA President.
- thanked everyone for helping during these times, she misses everyone being in school and thanks again for being understanding and patient.
- reiterated that the most important thing is that were healthy.
- enrollment has changed
 - 843 enrolled students to a projected 918 enrollment
 - some students have moved
- September 22, 2020 Broward County School Board will hold a workshop to discuss going back to school.
- the survey for intentions is still live on the virtual counselor on single sign -on and parents are encouraged to update their preferences if necessary.
- Mrs. Morgan will update after the BCPS meeting/workshop there's not currently no news as to how or when we will return.
- CIE has received signage provided by BCPS and is installing currently i.e. "walk this way".
- hoping for a smooth transition for everyone.
- this Friday teachers will be working on interim reports
 - not all kids will receive interim reports, likely children who need assistance, struggling with virtual learning or are on plans already.
 - reports will be distributed virtually and the teachers will communicate with the parents.

- Any questions referring to these interim reports should be first directed to the teacher; additional assistance is available through the school's guidance counselor as well as Mrs. Morgan & Mrs. White.

- mentioned the SAC meeting posted on the school's website, Edgar Collado thanked her for mentioning.

- Mrs. Morgan closed by saying thank you and encouraged everyone to reach out to administration at school 7:30am-3pm daily and to call or e-mail. She thanked Mrs. White for all her help during these times including the tech nights that Mrs. White has held for parents.
