Good afternoon Lake Forest Parents...WOW! It was so nice to see everyone this afternoon. We had over 260 parents attend today's Meet & Greet. Thank you all so much for coming! Tomorrow is the first day of school, please remember our times have not changed. No student should be dropped off until 7:30 when the gates open. Students wanting breakfast must be in the cafeteria line by the 7:50 bell. As a reminder... The only parents who can walk their child to their assigned area on the first day are PreK, Kindergarten and Special Needs students in self-contained classes. Our Open House schedule will be posted on the school's website later this week. Please make plans to attend!

I am looking forward to an AWESOME year filled with fun, excitement and LOTS of learning!

Have a great night and I'll see you tomorrow for a spectacular first day of school!!
