

Hispanic Heritage

National Art Honor Society

“GETS INSPIRED”

by Hispanic Artists

ARTIST: JETTY PORTER

INSPIRED BY:
PORTRAITS OF FRIDA KAHLO

ARTIST: JADIN PROCTOR

INSPIRED BY: Jean-Michel Basquiat who was of Haitian and Puerto Rican descent

Artist: Elizabeth Ruiz

Inspired by Pedro Linares and his Alebrije which are paper mache figurines.

These are made of foil, clay, paper, and acrylic paint

Artist: Shahar Wolfson

Inspired by:

Portraits of Frida Kahlo

ARTIST: DYNASTY
DIAS-MAXWELL

Inspired by:
Sushobha Jenner

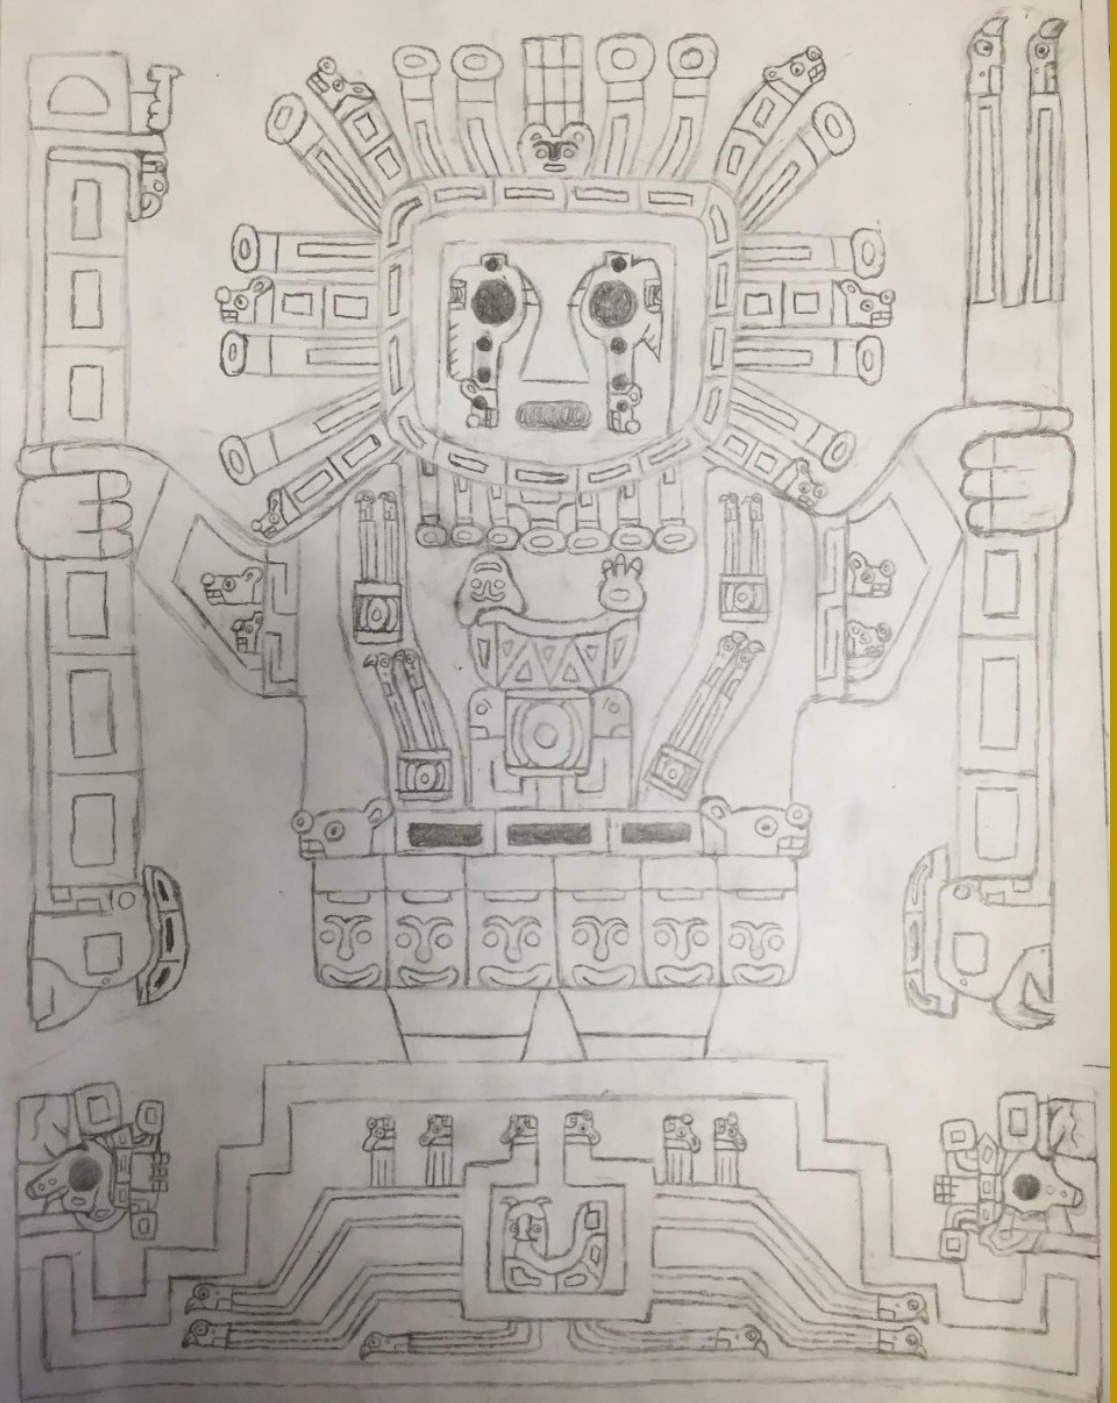

ARTIST: YARITZI
SANCHEZ MORALES

PORTRAIT INSPIRED BY:
FRIDA KAHLO

ARTIST:
Susana Diaz

Inspired by:
Peruvian Art
of the Incas

ARTIST: SOFIA CULOTTA

INSPIRED BY: Adriana Lestido, who famously photographed mother and daughters. My mom immigrated from Argentina and so I had her hold out a candle to me, her daughter, to signify how she lit the path for me in America and is now handing the light over to me

ARTIST:
EMMA ORTIZ

INSPIRED BY:
PORTRAIT OF FRIDA KAHLO

ARTIST: WALKEN PIERRE

INSPIRED BY:
FERNANDO BOTERO'S PAINTING
OF THE WOMEN IN THE RED
DRESS

ARTIST:
WHITNEY SIMEON

INSPIRED BY:
Graciela Iturbide,
Mexican Photographer

ARTIST:
SILVANA ARIAS

INSPIRED BY:
Gabriel García
Márquez

ARTIST: LOCHLAIN SKOVE

INSPIRED BY:
KARINA LLERGO'S PAINTINGS AND SPANISH CULTURAL DANCING