11:30 AM ET Make Your Own World Read Aloud Day Reading Crown with Peter H. Reynolds

Reading is often considered a solitary and quiet activity, where one experiences the story internally. Reading crowns are a treasured activity from our partners at LitWorld that help all that is in the reader's mind become visible! Join Peter H. Reynolds, author of Our Table, one of this year's World Read Aloud Day Book Picks, for a tutorial on how to make your own reading crown to help show others how you see and experience your favorite stories.

With an Introduction by Amber Peterson, Director of Program Innovation at LitWorld

Perfect for kids ages 3 to 7

JOIN ON 2/1 @ 11:30 AM ET

PETER H. REYNOLDS

1:00 PM ET "I Survived!" Trivia with Lauren Tarshis

New York Times best-selling author Lauren Tarshis is known for her I Survived series, which brings to life the stories of young and resilient people living through historical events including the American Revolution, the battle of D-Day, Hurricane Katrina, and more. Tune in on your own, or from your classroom, for a special Q&A session with Lauren. Then try your hand at trivia to see how much you know about history!

Perfect for classrooms grades 3-6, or kids ages 8-12
