

MSD LITERARY MAGAZINE

HAIKU CONTEST

Win a $5 Starbucks Gift Card and get your writing published in the school literary magazine.

DUE DATE | FRIDAY, NOV. 6
USE THIS LINK TO SUBMIT

We invite you to share a collection of 3 to 5 Haikus that relate to each other. They can be thematically linked or they can work together to tell an overall story.

RULES | INSTRUCTIONS

Haikus are a Japanese form of poetry that are three lines long and have specific syllable counts for each line. Line 1 - 5 syllables. Line 2 - 7 syllables. Line 3 - 5 syllables.

Example Haiku by Matsuo Basho
In the twilight rain
these brilliant-hued hibiscus -
A lovely sunset.

