Stay Engaged!

Research shows that family engagement in their child's education improves student achievement, reduces absenteeism, improves the child's social skills, behavior and performance on tests. Many parents allow students to take control of their education when they reach high school, but the parents' role during high school is more important than ever. Stoneman Douglas encourages all parents to get involved in their child's high school education! You can find a variety of information on staying up to date on your child's academic progress and extracurricular opportunities on the school website.

We have highlighted (2) two important updates below.

- ✓ Fights: any fight on campus will result in 9 days of external suspension.
- ✓ Publishing on Social Media: any situation that can compromise the safety of students, staff, or property (a fight, a threat, vandalism, etc.) must be shared/reported immediately to school administration using the following appropriate means:
 1. Report directly to administration
 2. Call DSOC (District Security Operations Center) at 754-321-3500 24/7
 3. Send an email to securitytips@browardschool.com
