Broward County Early Steps

A child's first three years of life are the most important time for learning and brain development

- Early Steps supports families whose infants and toddlers (birth to 36 months) have a developmental delay and assists child care staff to work with each child.
- Early identification and intervention services lead to the best child outcomes.
- The Ages & Stages developmental screening your child care center administers will let you know if further evaluation is needed through the Early Steps Program.
