

OVERVIEW

The Legislature held its fourth Week of Session, March 21-26, 2021.

Both Senate and House released their education budgets for the 2021-2022 school year. The Senate is maintaining the current per-student funding at $7,786 (state-wide average), while the House is increasing the per-student funding by *$181 for a total of $7,967 (state-wide average); including a $52 increase in the Base Student Allocation. The budgets will now move to the Appropriations Committee in both chambers before heading to the Floor for a full vote. Once the respective chambers pass their budget, they will commence negotiating their differences during the budget conference.

*(*This amount includes $349 million for the student reserve allocation which can be used for returning student. If the students do not return, the per-student funding will be $7,850 (state-wide average) an increase of $63)*

Of note, the following education bills were presented to committee this week:

HB 7045 - (School Choice): This is the House's companion to Senate Bill 48. This bill repeals the Gardiner Scholarship Program transitioning students to the Family Empowerment Scholarship Program, repeals the McKay Scholarship effective July 1, 2022 - transitioning students to the Family Empowerment Scholarship Program, and revises the scholarship amount for McKay.

SB 86 - (Student Financial Aid): Passed its final committee this week. The original bill will be amended as follows: financial aid will no longer be reduced for students seeking degrees that lead to fewer job opportunities. Students will now be required to acknowledge that they received information about career prospects in order to qualify for the financial aid.

SB 1028 - (Charter Schools): Passed its first committee this week. The bill authorizes state universities and Florida College System institutions to solicit applications and sponsor charter schools under certain circumstances.

SB 192 - (Students with Disabilities in Public Schools): Passed its first committee this week. The bill would establish a pilot program in Broward County that would require video cameras in certain classrooms at the request of a parent. The pilot program is not funded.
