California Achievement Test, 8th grade total battery scores expressed as percentiles.

Broward's Public Schools: getting better every day!

The simple chart shown above illustrates the dramatic progress made in Broward's public schools over the past decade. The figures are based on results of the California Achievement Test (CAT), which measures achievement in the basic skills: Language, Reading, Math, and Spelling. The "total battery" score reflects overall accomplishment, and is a means by which results can be compared to those of millions of other students who have taken the CAT.

As you can see, the 1971 results were below the nationwide average. But ten years later, following a "decade of dedication", the figures present a far different story: way above average each year—and climbing. And now that we've got the basic skills at levels which are the envy of other large school systems, we've been able to add depth and dimension to the education of Broward's students.

For example, "our kids" recently chalked up outstanding performances in the Westinghouse Science Talent Search, in national debate competitions, and the Florida Chess Championships.

The programs are working. That's one of the many reasons why Broward's is now the largest system in the United States where every student attends an accredited school. And where thousands of children are scoring far higher than national averages. For further information about Achievement, call 765-6334.
