Reports

Principals Report: 5:35pm

- Ms. Lopez began by greeting everyone with a Happy New Year.
- She welcomed Mr. Jonathan Edwards, our new Assistant Principal, coming to Boyd Anderson from Plantation High.
- Mr. Edwards spoke to the SAC members stating his joy of now being apart of the Cobra family.
- Ms. Lopez continued with Principal's report by informing everyone that teachers were welcomed back into the building. With the majority of teachers back on campus, we are looking to end to the overflow room soon.
- We have 238/1831 total students having returned on campus.
- We continue to follow CDC guidelines and provide PPE materials.
- Literacy Week – Scheduled for the week of January 25th. We will be having daily activities. We are trying to have our students create books and become authors.
- Martin Luther King – We will be celebrating Dr. King as well.
- Boyd Anderson High School 50th Anniversary – We will be working closely with alumni to celebrate.
- Athletics update information was shared.
- Academics – We have reached out to the families of those students who are not performing well academically, encouraging them to return to the school building.
- Social Emotional Learning (SEL) – Ms. Lopez responded to Ms. Lewis' question regarding what steps are we taking for our students regarding SEL stating that we have been very strategic with scheduling to build in the SEL piece through Study Hall classes. Our school counselors have been conducting checkouts with the seniors and juniors. During these checkouts the school counselors check on both the academic and SEL status of our students.
- Address changes – We encourage our families to keep the school informed with updates regarding address changes.
- End Principal Report 5:45pm

Faculty Presentation 5:47pm

Social Studies with Mr. Velasquez.

- Mr. Velasquez presented information for the Social Studies department via Powerpoint shared over Teams.
