

November

class newsletter

Ms. Spann: Reading-

Answering 'wh' questions, punctuation, & verbs. Math- using patterns to add & subtract, multiplication facts. Content- Life Cycles & Native American Culture. 'Why I'm Thankful' class project. IEP Goals.

Ms. Zuleta: Reading:

1st: Decoding and blending CVC words and sequencing events in a story. 2nd: Reading fluency and comprehension.

Math: 1st addition and subtraction 2nd: identifying, modeling and comparing numbers up to 1000. Content: Native American Heritage Month and Thanksgiving.

Ms. Max: Reading: Decoding and blending CVC words and answering key details from a story. Math: Simple one digit addition up to 5. Content: Native American history and why we are thankful.

Nov 5: Food drive
Nov 6: NO SCHOOL
Nov 12: NO SCHOOL
Nov 14: Report cards
Nov 15: Picture Make up day / Title 1 Math night
Nov 19: ASD parent Information
Nov 20: Interims
Nov 21-23: NO SCHOOL
Nov 26: Play Pals meeting
Nov 28: ESE parent Meeting
Nov 29: SAC meeting

Ms. Quintana: ELA: Keystones

"Branches of government & Animal classification"

Math: Understanding Multiplication (Grouping, Skip counting, arrays)

Content: Government and Animal classification

Ms. Lopez: Math: (4th grade)

Multiplication. Focusing on the distributive property, place value, product, and estimate. (5th Grade) Divide whole numbers: focusing on dividend, product, and remainder. ELA: Pronouns and punctuation. S/S Pilgrims and Indians and a Thanksgiving project. We will also be working on IEP Goals.

PLAY PALS INFORMATION:

Our Play Pals are all trained and ready to go! They will be meeting their cluster pals by the first week of November to start socializing with and getting to know them. The Play Pals in grades 3-5 will have the opportunity to volunteer in the Special Olympics School Roster event in December. Our annual football donations fundraiser for the Dan Marino WalkAbout Autism will be postponed until February because the walk will not be until March 29th this year. Save the Date!! Looking forward to another fun filled year with our Play Pals! 😊